CELEBRATION OF THE PRINCIPLES OF COMMUNITY

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 25
Principles of Community
4–5 P.M., Room E, Student Community Center
A workshop presented by P.E.A.C.E. Trainers.

Faith and Tea
5–7 P.M., Room D, Student Community Center
A dialogue about faith and building community across religious differences. Sponsored by Middle East/South Asia Studies.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 26
Freedom of Speech
2–3:15 P.M., King Room, Memorial Union
Lecture and discussion presented by Vikram Amar, assistant dean and professor, School of Law.

Making Connections Across Difference
NOON–1 P.M. A dialogue about building meaningful relationships among diverse people. Attendance restricted to staff. For more information or to RSVP, contact Vickie Gomez, vlgomez@ucdavis.edu.

THEATER OF THE OPPRESSED
7–9 P.M., Room D, Student Community Center
Performance by Unity Clap Theater.

WOMAN TO WOMAN
6–8 P.M., Multipurpose Room, Student Community Center
A critical dialogue between women-identified members of the African Diaspora pertaining to their experience on a college campus. RSVP required. Food will be served. For more information, contact Jerrie Lowe, jelowe@ucdavis.edu.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 27
Intersections: Spirituality and Sexuality
5–7 P.M., Multipurpose Room, Student Community Center
A dialogue about those who have suffered sexual and religious oppression, presented by Darlingsa Cooks, activist, educator and spoken word artist.

Know Your Song
6–7 P.M., Student Recruitment and Retention Center (at the Student Community Center)
Teaching students about the historical significance of the song “Lift Every Voice and Sing,” including history about the songwriter, James Weldon Johnson. For more information contact Jerrie Lowe, jelowe@ucdavis.edu.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 28
Social Justice 101
NOON–1 P.M., DeCarli Room, Memorial Union
A workshop presented by the Multicultural Immersion Program Interns.

FRIDAY, MARCH 1
Student Leadership and Service to Your Community
1:30–2:30 P.M., P.E.A.C.E. Lounge, Cross Cultural Center (at the Student Community Center)
What opportunities are available for leading and serving your campus community? Come learn how you can work with students, administrators, faculty and staff to make an impact on your campus community.

ALL WEEK
Structures, Signifiers and Society: People and Textiles
Exhibition at the Design Museum, 124 Cruess Hall
Featuring stunning examples from the UC Davis Design Collection. These ethnographic and contemporary works showcase the significance of textiles as representations of ingenuity, identity and cultures around the world. More information: designmuseum.ucdavis.edu.

Exhibition runs through March 18. Museum open noon–4 P.M. Monday–Friday and 2–4 P.M. Sunday.