Staff Event— “How Can We Build Greater Campus & Workplace Community”?
11:45–1:30 p.m., Registration required for attendance-lunch will be provided.

This event will focus on a dialogue about building campus and workplace community. It is an opportunity for staff to meet colleagues from across campus and make connections by engaging in meaningful conversations and guided activities on building campus community. Come and share ideas and recommendations about how to implement the Principles of Community. Representatives from various interest and constituency groups will be present to share information and welcome new members. RSVP by 2/19/14: OCCR@ucdavis.edu

Safe Zone Training

12–3 p.m., Student Community Center Meeting Room C
Safe Zone Training is a three hour training designed to raise awareness and discuss ways to make the spaces we live and work in more welcoming and safe for LGBTQIA people.

Registration required-contact: eacote@ucdavis.edu

Film Screening: "Brother Outsider"

4–6 p.m., Student Community Center Meeting Room E
Bayard Rustin is widely recognized as the organizer of the 1963 March on Washington and as a mentor to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. However, Rustin was denied his proper place in history due to his sexual orientation. In watching this film and discussing its place in the present context, we will examine what it means to be black and queer in America and its intersection.

Dialogue on Religious Diversity

6–9 p.m., Student Community Center Multi-Purpose Room
How do different religious implement and live their beliefs and practices? What does it mean to be atheist or agnostic? What negative and positive experiences have you encountered because of your faith or non-faith? How do we promote respect for the many religious traditions as well as for people who are atheist or agnostic? In this panel discussion, students of different faiths and non-believers will dialogue about these questions and share their values while taking a positive and respectful stance toward the diverse beliefs of others.

Refreshments will be served.

UC Davis has an unwavering commitment to a campus culture of diversity, equality and inclusion, where mistreatment, hateful behavior and violence are not tolerated. The university’s culture values and respects each person’s contributions.
